

Key to the City Privacy Statement

In order to maintain and promote privacy of member information:

"Information pertaining to Key to the City members, including membership rosters, addresses, phone numbers, email addresses, etc., is for internal Club purposes and club-related communications only by either the Key to the City Club organization and/or its individual members. Key to the City does not release or sanction the use of member information for commercial solicitation purposes. We respect and support our member's right to privacy."
